

This is the 2009-2010 EARTHSONG

By zooming in on the above jpeg you will be able to find out which 2 organs are active each day. This year the map of the left eye shows what the issue relates to if you have jewels or pools in any of the circuits. The printed version of the EARTHSONG is about 50x50 cm. It can be bought online and from a large number of New Age and Health Food Shops in Australia. The list of shops is shown on the next page. The retail price in the shops is around $10.-. Online and internationally they are more expensive, ($30.-) because they need to be sent in a tube through the post and are handled by a forwarding contractor. The advantage in having a printed copy is that you can note in the outside white margin when an event occurred and hence track it when it happens again. Healers will find it most useful because clients will contact them on certain days depending on the therapy they offer. Also for planning events such as a party it is useful to know that Liver days tend to be depressive for many people who enjoy alcohol. One very useful tip for Lovers is that on the day that the Adrenals and the Penis/Vagina circuits are vibrated by mother earth, both sexes are turned on. Thus on T and I days (they happen every 24 days) go visit your lover and is very likely that you will end up in bed together.
